Care Instructions and information

Most of our jewellery is stainless steel, but as with any jewelry, it is best to remove it before showering or swimming and to keep it away from chemicals. It is after all costume jewellery and should be treated as such. We do not offer any guarantees or replacements as we cannot return the items to our supplier.

Custom charms should not get wet at all as this can cause the photo to discolour or fall off. European charms are silver plated alloy and will eventually tarnish.

We suggest that all gold plated charms and charms with little stones get a layer of clear nail polish over them to keep them looking new for longer. Special care should be taken when wearing dangle charms to prevent damage to the charm and your clothing. Dangle charms are not recommended for children
